

Services to the Wayne State University Community

- Affirmative action and equal opportunity program planning
- Americans with Disabilities Act monitoring and compliance
- Veterans Administration reporting
- Search committee liaisons and employment search committee training
- University employment action monitoring
- Conflict resolution and meditation
- Anti-discrimination, diversity and sexual harassment seminars
- Administration of the WSU Supplier Diversity Program
- Workforce planning coordination (short-term and long-term)

Our Department Consists of our Director, EO Specialists and Administrative Assistant/Intake Manager who are available to assist you by providing a number of services to the University Community that ensures that no person is discriminated against in employment, educational programs and activities on the basis of race, color, gender, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, disability or veteran status.

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

For Further information, call or write:

Office of Equal Opportunity
Wayne State University
5700 Cass Ave
Suite #3660 A/AB
Detroit, Michigan 48202
Telephone: (313) 577-2280
Fax: (313) 577-7738

Monday-Friday 8:30-5:00

OFFICE OF
EQUAL OPPORTUNITY
SERVICES

OEO QUICK FACTS

Equal Opportunity
assists WSU...

- students
- faculty
- staff
- vendors
- contractors
- suppliers

NEED ASSISTANCE

WE CAN HELP YOU BY:

ACCEPTING

and investigating complaints of discrimination due to race, gender, color, religion, national origin or veteran status. We investigate all allegations of sexual harassment and discrimination based on sexual preference.

WORKING

to resolve complaints and incidents of tension through mediation, negotiation, and counseling.

PROVIDING

educational programs, services, and materials pertaining to diversity, equal opportunity and affirmative action.

COOPERATING

with other organizations in efforts to improve the conditions and relationships of all Wayne State University faculty, staff, and students.

BECOME INVOLVED

YOU CAN HELP YOURSELF BY:

LEARNING and discussing the issues related to affirmative action, diversity, equal opportunity.

SETTING a good example by providing fair and objective treatment to all people.

HELPING to stop rumors and harmful gossip, and to avoid group stereotyping.

CALLING Equal Opportunity for information, advice and counsel.

